

Human Rights of Third Sex

Project Swarajya has remained involved in the campaign for the human rights of Third Sex. To avail the equal rights along with the persons of other genders the persons from transgender community have been seeking the assistance and protection from Project Swarajya. Since 2006 Project Swarajya has been assisting them in several ways, such as by providing office space, writing letters and applications for them, and organizing seminars and symposiums on issues concerning the human rights of third sex population.
